

NCR's Accomplishment Report – 2nd Quarter CY 2013

INTRODUCTION

For the 2nd Quarter of CY 2013, DSWD-NCR gave emphasis on the Strategic Goals. After the Consultation on Strategic Goals with the DSWD Operations and Capacity Building Group and the Rapid Cascading of the Strategic Goals, the Regional Office formulated its 2013 Plan to operationalize the three Strategic Goals. This will be closely monitored through the conduct of weekly Score Board Meetings and the intensified implementation of programs included in this Strategic Goals.

Even with the big challenge of the Strategic Goals, continued implementation of Big Ticket Projects and regular programs and projects are not set aside. For the quarter alone, a total of 1,530 beneficiaries were served through community-based programs and 24,920 clients through center-based services. For the Big Ticket Projects, status of implementation is contained in the succeeding highlights of accomplishments.

NCR's Accomplishment Report – 2nd Quarter CY 2013

2.2 For Pilot Testing

a. Recovery and Reintegration Program for Trafficking in Persons

Training of 11 Social Workers on Philippine Anti-Trafficking Data Base- National Recovery and Reintegration Database was held last May 23, 2013 at the DSWD-NCR Conference Room. The said training was a hands-on experience where the participants got to encode a sample client's card to the data base. It was also during this training that the Social Workers accomplished the non-disclosure agreement.

With regard to the rescue operation, a total of 192 TIP were rescued and assisted by the Rescue Team in the conduct of interview, assessment, referral to institutions.

b. Healing and Grief Management Approach

Development of Grief Assessment Tools of the Healing and Grief Management Approach for Bereaved Mothers and their families was held on May 14 to 17, 2013 as initiated by INA Healing Center and in partnership with the Social Technology Bureau.

c. Golden Reception and Action Center for Elderly and other Special Cases (GRACES)

Continuous implementation of this Social Technology Project was being closely monitored. For the 2nd quarter, three organizational development meetings were held with the Central Office and Region IV-A staff to discuss the funding requirements of GRACES and to identify strategies for fund generation. In terms of capability building, orientation on Hospice Care and Palliative Care Training was conducted this quarter.

d. Music and Arts Therapy

The first 24 sessions for this project was completed on May 31, 2013 with 24 beneficiaries. To ensure the smooth implementation of the project, joint monitoring and technical assistance was conducted on May 29, 2013 with the Social Technology Bureau. Gaps in the conduct of sessions were discussed to staff of EGV to improve the implementation of the project.

e. Transitional Living for Effective Reintegration (TransFER)

Status of the five CICL clients under this project is continuously monitored though two (2) clients were successfully reintegrated with their family/ relative and working. As of the reporting period, three (3) clients are still waiting court order for their discharge. Among these three (3) clients, one (1) client has received a court order for her return to Marillac Hills and eventual job placement to a family in Quezon City after compliance with certain conditions imposed.

f. Supervised Independent or Group Living Arrangement (SIGLA)

On May 16, 2013, 35 clients have attended the orientation given by Youth at Venture. However, after the initial assessment made, only 12 have qualified who will be

Cash for Work

1. Community Service Project for Street Children

NCR's Accomplishment Report – 2nd Quarter CY 2013

As of June 10, 2013, the project utilized the amount of P 1,461,600.00 (33.33%) vis-à-vis P8, 317,440.00 for 160 beneficiaries. Out of the 160 beneficiaries, 72 or 45% are in- school and 23 or 14.23% are enrolled in Alternative Learning System (ALS). The remaining 55 children were encouraged to attend ALS this July 2013 as requirement for their continuation on availment of community service project.

2. Social Tourism Project

The project was started as responsive measure of the National Park Development Committee (NPDC) and DSWD- NCR in the proliferation of street dwellers in Luneta Park. As of June 10, 2013, the project utilized the total amount of P 2, 094, 124.00 or 15.87 % vis-à-vis P4,199,580.00.

Since most of the beneficiaries of the social tourism project are homeless, they are required to rent a room/ house to prevent them from living in the streets. Inability to meet the condition would mean delisting from the roster of beneficiaries. However, the regional office project's focal person in collaboration with the local social workers would ensure that all the beneficiaries could rent a house as they would be supervised on their daily finances/ expenditures.

3. Street Facilitators

A total of 92 Street Facilitators were deployed in 17 LGUs of Metro Manila. Sixty-two (62) or 67.39% of them are previous Street Facilitators and 30 or 32.61 are additional for the deployment in the Task Force Roxas Boulevard to address the proliferation of Street Dwellers along Roxas Boulevard of Manila and Pasay City.

- One reached out mother of street family who was recently verified as newly licensed teacher was referred by MDSW to DEPED-NCR for possible employment.
- Twenty-eight (28) mentally- stressed individuals who have been in the street for a year or more with no psychiatric intervention are now confined in NCMH for psychiatric intervention.

In addition, the task force achieved the following output which intensified the coordination and collaboration efforts of all concerned stakeholders.

- Decreased number of individuals reached- out along Roxas Boulevard in Manila area from 50 individuals (MAY 27, 2013) to 8 individuals (June 8, 2013)
- Partnership of LGU, MMDA and DSWD-NCR strengthened.
- The street facilitators became more skillful in doing reach out operation.
- There are no longer unattached street children in Roxas Boulevard and Baywalk, just adult.
- Communities became aware of the existing and available venue or facility, to include MMDA Worker's Inn for provision of protective services
- Existence of data- banking and profiling of street dwellers using biometrics to individuals and families at risk.
- Sec. Francisco Tolentino extended the operation of Task Force Roxas Boulevard until December 2013.
